

Holy Family Episcopal Church

Second Sunday of Advent

December 8, 2024

Welcome!

If you would like more information about Holy Family or otherwise want to communicate with the clergy or office, you can fill out a Guest Information Card and drop it in the offering plate or give it to one of the clergy: cards may be found on clipboards throughout the building. We'll get information to you as soon as possible. Thank you for being part of the community this morning! References marked BCP are for pages in The Book of Common Prayer (red book); those marked H or S refer to hymns in The Hymnal 1982 (blue hardback book); those marked G refer to hymns in the songbook Gather (blue paperback book).

Holy Eucharist – Rite II

Entrance Hymn

There's a Voice in the Wilderness Crying H 75

The Word of God

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Kyrie

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy, have mercy.

H S96

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Merciful God, who sent your messengers the prophets to preach repentance and prepare the way for our salvation: Give us grace to heed their warnings and forsake our sins, that we may greet with joy the coming of Jesus Christ our Redeemer; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Advent Wreath Lighting

Two candles are lit by a member of the congregation while the following prayer is read.

O Lord, as we prepare for your renewing presence, let us reflect your love in all that we do. Give us strength to change our ways, rid ourselves of angry thoughts, bitter words, selfishness, and anything that distracts from you and your love for the world. O Jesus, open our hearts for the kingdom of heaven is near, in your name we pray. Amen.

The First Reading

Baruch 5:1-9

Take off the garment of your sorrow and affliction, O Jerusalem, and put on forever the beauty of the glory from God. Put on the robe of the righteousness that comes from God; put on your head the diadem of the glory of the Everlasting; for God will show your splendor everywhere under heaven. For God will give you evermore the name, "Righteous Peace, Godly Glory." Arise, O Jerusalem, stand upon the height; look toward the east, and see your children gathered from west and east at the word of the Holy One, rejoicing that God has remembered them. For they went out from you on foot, led away by their enemies; but God will bring them back to you, carried in glory, as on a royal throne. For God has ordered that every high mountain and the everlasting hills be made low and the valleys filled up, to make level ground, so that Israel may walk safely in the glory of God. The woods and every fragrant tree have shaded Israel at God's command. For God will lead Israel with joy, in the light of his glory, with the mercy and righteousness that come from him.

The Song of Zechariah

Luke 1: 68-79

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel;
he has come to his people and set them free.
He has raised up for us a mighty savior,
born of the house of his servant David.
Through his holy prophets he promised of old,
that he would save us from our enemies,
from the hands of all who hate us.
He promised to show mercy to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant.
This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham,
to set us free from the hands of our enemies,
Free to worship him without fear, holy and righteous in his sight
all the days of our life.
You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way,
To give his people knowledge of salvation
by the forgiveness of their sins.
In the tender compassion of our God
the dawn from on high shall break upon us,
To shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death, and to guide our feet into the way of peace.
Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Second Reading

Philippians 1:3-11

I thank my God every time I remember you, constantly praying with joy in every one of my prayers for all of you, because of your sharing in the gospel from the first day until now. I am confident of this, that the one who began a good work among you will bring it to completion by the day of Jesus Christ. It is right for me to think this way about all of you, because you hold me in your heart, for all of you share in God's grace with me, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel. For God is my witness, how I long for all of you with the compassion of Christ Jesus. And this is my prayer, that your love may overflow more and more with knowledge and full insight to help you to determine what is best, so that in the day of Christ you may be pure and blameless, having produced the harvest of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ for the glory and praise of God.

The Holy Gospel

Luke 3:1-6

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In the fifteenth year of the reign of Emperor Tiberius, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was ruler of Galilee, and his brother Philip ruler of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias ruler of Abilene, during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness. He went into all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah, "The voice of one crying out in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways made smooth; and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.'"

Priest The Gospel of the Lord

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Homily

The Rev. Cathy Gray

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

BCP 387

The Leader and People pray responsively

You make us glad, oh God, in your desire to dwell among us;

We rejoice that the very air around us stirs and announces your Advent.

We pray for your Church.

Alive and waiting, gazing east and feeling the wind of your approaching wings.

We pray for the multitudes of people who, day by day, become Church; In our Diocesan Cycle of Prayer we pray for the clergy and people of Trinity, Anderson. We pray for Sean our presiding Bishop; Jennifer our Bishop; we pray for deacons, for priests, and for bishops. Make us all beacons of your coming: Your hands where strength is needed. Your heart where love has grown thin. The emblem of rejoicing in heaven when there is cause for rejoicing on earth.

We ask that you will hear us and attend patiently as we convey our needs and our thanks, things spoken aloud or held in the silence of our hearts:

We pray for those who serve as leaders in this world - local, national, global: Make them good guides in caring for this earth and advocates for true peace among all people.

Give them wisdom and kind hearts. Make them zealous for the common good and clear-headed in our common woes.

We pray for all people of this earth: For those who are lost and for those who have found themselves in you. For those who sit in fear and for those who stand in hope. For those at margins of life, and for those who work to draw them toward the center. For those who suffer illness or tragedy or loss or sorrow, and for those who have cause for celebration.

In our parish cycle of prayer we pray for the Pickens, Pierce, and Ray families, and for those who serve as our Prayer Shawl Ministries. Let us pray for our own needs and those of others.

The People may add their own prayers and thanksgivings, aloud or silently.

Tend the sick, O Christ, especially, Beth, Joanie, Julie, Tyra and Adam, Susan, William, Norma, and Katja; soothe the suffering, O Lord, and shield the joyous.

Hold their gaze in the warmth of your hand, that they may look upon you and rejoice.

We pray for those expecting babies soon; especially Thomas and Taylor.

We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life.

We pray for those who have died, that they may know eternal joy in your presence. And we pray for those who mourn, who await your joyous coming in the midst of tears.

Shine upon them, O God of Mercy, that even in death they may find Life; that even in sadness they may see your coming and find new hope.

Keep us mindful that your Kingdom lives within us, and that we are, in every moment, the pulse and warmth of your coming among us.

Rise up, O God, like the dawn; fall on us like the dew of morning. Keep us looking east, that we should not miss the brilliant moment of your arrival. Amen.

Celebrant: Let us confess sins against God and our neighbor.

Confession of Sin

BCP 360

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen

The Peace

All stand.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

The Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer B

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Blessed are you, Strong and faithful God.

All your works, the height and the depth, echo the silent music of your praise.

In the beginning, your Word summoned light:
night withdrew, and creation dawned.

As ages passed unseen, waters gathered on the face of the earth and life appeared.
When the times at last had ripened and the earth grown full in abundance,
You created in your image man and woman,
the crown of all creation.

You gave us breath and speech, that all the living might find a voice to sing your praise.
So now, with all the powers of heaven and earth,
we chant the ageless hymn of your glory:

Sanctus

S 124

Celebrant and People

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

All holy God,
how wonderful are the works of your hands!
You restored the beauty of your image when sin had scarred the world.

As a mother tenderly gathers her children, you embraced a people as your own and filled them with longing for a peace that would last and for a justice that would never fail.

Through countless generations your people hungered for the bread of freedom.
From them you raised up Jesus, the living bread,
in whom ancient hungers were satisfied.
He healed the sick, though he himself would suffer;
he offered life to sinners,
though death would hunt him down.
But with a love stronger than death,
he opened wide his arms and surrendered his spirit.

Holy One, let your Holy Spirit move in power over us and over our earthly gifts of bread and wine, that they may become the body and blood of Christ.

On the night before he met with death,
Jesus came to table with those he loved.
He took bread and blessed you, God of all creation;
he broke the bread among his disciples and said:
Take this all of you, and eat it;
This is my body which will be given up for you.

When supper was ended, he took a cup of wine and gave thanks to you, God of all creation;
he passed the cup among his disciples and said:
Take this, all of you, and drink from it:
this is the cup of my blood,
the blood of the new and everlasting covenant.
It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven.
Do this in memory of me.

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Holy One, we commemorate Jesus, your Son,
as we offer you this sacrifice.

Death could not bind him,
for you raised him up in the spirit of holiness and exalted him as Lord of creation.

May his coming in glory find us ever-watchful in prayer, strong in love, and faithful in the breaking of the bread.

Rejoicing in the Holy Spirit,

Your whole church offers thanks and praise.
We pray for those here present and all whose lives bring hope to this world.

Lord of the living and the dead, awaken those fallen asleep in faith to the undying light of pardon and peace, especially those who have died alone, unloved, and unmourned.
Gather them all into communion with Mary, Joseph, and with all your saints.
Then, at last, will all creation be one and all divisions healed, and we shall join in singing your praise through your Son, Jesus Christ.

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honor is yours,
almighty God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

The congregation prays the Lord's Prayer together.

The Lord's Prayer BCP 364
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread
A period of silence is kept.

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

Fraction Anthem H S161
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: grant us peace.

The Invitation

All persons are welcome to receive communion. If you wish only a blessing, please so indicate to the priest by crossing your arms over your chest. A gluten free option is available for those who need it, simply let the priest know at the time you are to receive the bread.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome to Holy Family! If you would like more information about Holy Family, please email Fr. Bruce at bgray@hfec.org or go to the Holy Family Website HolyFamilyFishers.org.

You can use your smartphone to scan this code which opens the Holy Family website.

NEW & NOTEWORTHY

Diocesan Reunification Parish Reflection Sessions: On Sundays, December 22nd and January 5th at 9 AM in the parish hall, Father Bruce will lead discussion questions provided by the Diocese about the upcoming reunification of the Diocese of Northern Indiana and the Diocese of Indianapolis. These will be duplicate sessions, so you are encouraged to attend just one. More information can be found at www.episcopalindiana.org Questions can be directed to Father Bruce. bgray@hfec.org

Advent Wreath Volunteers & Christmas Serving Roles: At the beginning of each Advent service, Holy Family invites a household or small group to light the candle(s) for the week and recite a prayer. Please sign up online at tinyurl.com/HFECadvent2024 to help with this tradition at either the 8 AM or 10 AM service on Sundays or to help with any serving roles for Christmas services. If you prefer, you may contact the church office to volunteer for any of these roles. admin@hfec.org

Angel Tree Collection: Visit tinyurl.com/HFECangeltree2024 to purchase items that will be given to students and their family members at Fishers Elementary School. All unwrapped gift items must be returned to church by Sunday, December 15th. Please mark each item or bag with a Post-It note or other way to identify the child for each gift. If possible, please provide a gift receipt for each item as well. Please contact Kay Mulhall via the church office for more information. admin@hfec.org

Support Holy Family's College Care Package Ministry! Holy Family is excited to announce an opportunity to support its College Care Package Ministry, which sends a variety of holiday cards, birthday cards, and small monetary gifts to students from the congregation. Your financial contributions will help cover the costs of purchasing these items. Donations can be made through the offering plate (memo: Care Package Ministry), through the church website, in-person at the church office, or by mail. For more information, please contact Ruth Everett, youthministry@hfec.org. The next gift will be given at finals, just before students return home for Christmas. Thank you for your generosity and support!

Share Your Thoughts! Holy Family has created this survey to collect parishioner feedback regarding the current and future congregation needs as the church grounds are redeveloped. The Stewardship Committee identified seven outdoor venues that will need to be relocated/changed because of the land sale. Your feedback and thoughts on the priorities are important. Please rate each venue and provide any comments, ideas, or insights you may have. The last question is open-ended for you to insert other suggestions you would like the committee to consider. Questions can be directed to Ben Paden at treasurer@hfec.org.

Missionaries of Charity Collection: Holy Family is actively collecting donations of new or gently used coats, hats, gloves, scarves, sleeping bags, and blankets for the guests at Missionaries of Charity shelter in Indianapolis. Please drop off donations in the basket in the Narthex. Thank you for your support and keeping our neighbors in need warm this winter! Please direct questions to the church office. admin@hfec.org Christmas Sweater Sunday: You won't find it on any liturgical calendar, but Christmas Sweater Sunday is a fan favorite at Holy Family! You are invited to wear your shiniest, dangliest, most festive Christmas sweater, vest, jacket, leggings, tie, scarf, hat, headband, jewelry, or whatever you like on Sunday, December 22nd. Let your light shine!

Greening of the Church: On Sunday, December 22nd at 4 PM, the church will be decorated for Christmas during Holy Family's annual Greening of the Church. Children are welcome to attend and are expected to remain with their parents and help decorate. There is no childcare provided for this event. Following the decorating, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will host its annual spaghetti dinner as a thank you for your hard work. All are welcome! Please contact Father Bruce if you have any questions. bgray@hfec.org

Father Bruce's retirement: After nearly forty years of ministry as an Episcopal priest and seven as rector of Holy Family, Father Bruce is retiring on Sunday, February 2nd. For more information about celebrating the ministries of Bruce and Cathy as well as the transition towards Holy Family's next priest, keep an eye on the newsletter, bulletin, and Sunday worship announcements.

WORSHIP

Prayer Group Meeting: Holy Family Prayer Group meets from 6:30 – 7 PM on the second Monday of the month. The next gathering is December 9th. All are welcome to come and join in prayer. Contact Kristine Canter or the church office for more information. admin@hfec.org Shortcut to Sunday Podcasts: Holy Family has a weekly podcast that focuses on the Bible readings for each week. New podcasts will be released at: podcasters.spotify.com/pod/show/holy-family-episcopal-chu each Tuesday in preparation for the following Sunday.

CHRISTIAN FORMATION

Sunday School Registration: Please follow this link to register your children and youth for childcare, Sunday school, and other activities this school year. Great news! There is a "shortcut" version that skips having to fill out your address, emergency contacts, etc. for multiple children in one household. Please complete the form fully once for the first child, then select the shortcut version for additional children. tinyurl.com/CMYG2024

Adult Forum: On Sunday's at 9 AM this fall, Fr. Bruce will offer sessions about various aspects of the Episcopal Church. Questions are very much encouraged, both on Sundays and via email (bgray@hfec.org). Topics will include spirituality, Scripture, worship, ethics, history, and more.. Please contact Fr. Bruce for more information.

Bible Study: Holy Family's Bible Study group meets in the conference room on 9 AM each Sunday morning. The topic for this study is the Gospel of Luke. View the lesson schedule at holyfamilyfishers.org/biblestudy/. Please direct questions to Stephen or Kristine Canter via the church office. admin@hfec.org

OUTREACH

Childcare Volunteers Needed: The children in 10 AM Childcare need a few more volunteers to supervise playtime for the first thirty minutes of the 10 AM worship service. Volunteers must have participated regularly at Holy Family for a minimum of six months and completed abuse prevention training mandated by the Diocese. High school volunteers may assist once per month when a trained adult is present. It's a fun time to get to know the kiddos of the #holyvillage so much better. Please sign up HERE or reach out to Childcare Coordinator Emily Becraft through the church office. admin@hfec.org

Fisher Elementary Snacks: Students at Fishers Elementary need individually wrapped, nut-free snacks: Pretzels (Rolled Gold, Pepperidge Farm, Herr's), Popcorn (Skinny Pop, Smartfood, Utz), Cheez-Its, Teddy Grahams, Veggie Straws, Pepperidge Goldfish Crackers (Plain, cheddar, pretzel), Animal Crackers (Barnum, Austin Zoo), Pirate's Booty, Nilla Wafers, Raisins and other dried fruits. A collection box is located in the Narthex. Questions can be directed to the SATS team via the office. admin@hfec.org

Food Pantry Donations: In support of the Delaware Township Food Pantry, Holy Family parishioners are invited to donate canned goods, oats, snacks, tomato sauce, Jello mix, canned fruit, sugar, oil, flour, crackers, dried beans, crunchy peanut butter, beef stew, minute rice, canned pasta, and corn bread mix. For a list of items that the food pantry especially needs, visit: tinyurl.com/HFECfoodpantry. Donations can be dropped off in the baskets near the coat racks in the church lobby during Sunday worship hours.

Support a Teacher & Staff Ministry: Since Autumn 2021, the team at Support a Teacher and Staff (SATS) has been treating all teachers and staff members at Fishers Elementary by providing personal notes and small gifts each month of the school year. Consider making a financial donation to help the team purchase those little gifts, as well as a few larger gifts as requested by teachers and staff members. Or, consider providing bundles of $5 Starbucks Gift-cards or individually wrapped chocolates. See Cathy Gray, Susie Beard, or any SATS team member, or get in touch through the church office at admin@hfec.org. Thank you!

MINISTRY GATHERINGS

Book Group: Book Group will meet on Wednesday, December 18th, at 3 PM. Contact Fr Bruce to get the information to join the Zoom meeting. bgray@hfec.org

Prayer Shawl Ministry: The Prayer Shawl Ministry is open to anyone who has the skills or desire to knit or crochet. Additional hands are always needed, and teachers are available! Prayer Shawls begin with the shawl maker saying prayers for the recipient. Prayers are continued during the creation of the shawl and shawls are blessed by the priest before they are given as gifts. Meetings are held in the Narthex of Holy Family at 7 PM on the second Monday of the month. The next meeting will be December 9th. Please contact Kristine Canter or the church office for more information. admin@hfec.org

Book Group: There is no December gathering. Contact Fr Bruce to get the information to join the next Zoom meeting. bgray@hfec.org

FELLOWSHIP

Hospitality Hosts Wanted: Following the 10 AM service each week, you are invited to gather in the parish hall for refreshments and fellowship. Hospitality hosts are needed to lead this important ministry! Holy Family provides paper goods and coffee. Hospitality hosts are responsible for providing/ serving snacks and cold drinks, making and serving coffee, and cleaning up. Questions about hospitality hosts may be directed to Mel Bohlander via the church office. admin@hfec.org

OTHER NEWS

Fr. Bruce Continues to be Available for Visitations: Whether there is a particular crisis, another need, or if you would simply like a one-on-one conversation with Fr. Bruce, please contact him on his cell (317-363-6412) or email (bgray@hfec.org) and he will respond ASAP. He visits people in their hospital rooms, homes, coffee houses, Holy Family, and miscellaneous other locations. One of a priest's greatest joys is getting to better know each parishioner. Father Bruce is also in the church office most Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 9 AM - Noon.
